

Australian Professional Small/Medium Builder of the Year 2009

Today's Homes and Lifestyle has been named the Australian Professional Small/Medium Builder of the Year 2009 at the HIA Australian Housing Awards held in Brisbane.

The Professional Builder Award acknowledges outstanding business achievement among Australia's home builders. Recognising quality and professionalism, the Professional Builder Award presents the opportunity for builders to demonstrate their commitment to customer service, business management and quality management.

Congratulating Today's Homes and Lifestyle, HIA Managing Director Ron Silberberg said, "This year's HIA-CSR Australian Housing Awards are a testament to the strength and resilience of the Australian housing industry. Once again, entries were of an exceptional standard and highlight the enormous talent and versatility of the best in the business".

Today's Homes and Lifestyle were up against builders from NSW, QLD, Nth QLD, VIC, Hunter, SA and WA. This is truly an achievement we are very proud of.

"Your success is a tribute to you and your staff's commitment to building excellence and your dedication to industry. You are truly an industry leader and HIA is very fortunate to have you as one of its members.

It was also a significant regional achievement which I believe will inspire many industry people in the ACT and Southern NSW resulting in better local competition and quality construction outcomes for our region."

Stuart Collins
Executive Director
HIA ACT/Southern NSW

We would like to take this opportunity to thank our staff, suppliers and subcontractors for their hard work and support. You all play a pivotal role in the company and its success. Thank you, from Today's Homes.
